RUMOR: APPLE'S COVID-19 WEAPON

Will Apple Watch Series 6 help with the coronavirus?

The coronavirus is reaching its peak in most countries, or at least we think. Some people think the coronavirus will have another rush in autumn, but governments will be prepared. Then there are other people, like Tim Cook, who think that we will have a weapon to help us stop it: Apple Watch Series 6.

A leak said that the new watch will track oxygen levels in the blood. This might not be true, but who knows? Maybe it is!

NOW HIRING: REPORTERS

We are still looking for reporters.

Vintro's is on the lookout for more reporters. The reporters should not worry too much about spelling, since the editors will fix it.

Reporters should be able to have some ability to spell or type. Preferably, the articles should be done online. Reporters are asked but not required to include a picture, maximum 2.

Before being hired, reporters will take an interview.

Here is the place you should email to be hired:

Thank you for your attention.

APPLE-GOOGLE ALLIGMENT

Apple and Google teaming up is welcome by the EU COVID-19 app platform

Coronavirus

Apple and Google have teamed up to fight the coronavirus! This is deadly for the virus, since both Google and Apple have some of the smartest people in the world working for them!

The technology which they are working on is still not very known about, but we do know that it does use Bluetooth.

Coronavirus has better watch out!
